16_SHADOW LAND

Studio David Pompa's 'La Caleta' wall lamp combines traditional Mexican handwoven craftsmanship that allows the structure to cast a warm glow on the wall. davidpompa.com

15_DYNAMIC DUO

Nickey Kehoe's lighting collection for The Urban Electric Co, including the 'Double Arm Pendant' (pictured), was influenced by Mediterranean and Moroccan styles. urbanelectricco.com

13_BIG TICK

Mixing materials to great effect, Mexican design studio Panorámica's graphic 'Mono' clock is divided into quarters with distinctly different textures. www.panoramica.com

14_SHARP SHOOTER

The gesture of throwing your hat when arriving home (think entertainer Fred Astaire c.1940s) inspired Philippe Starck's customisable 'Chapo' table lamp for Flos. euroluce.com.au

17_WORK MATE

With sleek textures of brass, Corian and ebonised oak, Charles Kalpakian's 'Vessel' desk for French furniture brand Galerie BSL will turn even tedious office tasks into a pleasure. galeriebsl.com

21_WELL MOULDED

After 40 years, Kartell's 'Tavola' collection is back on the table. Patricia Urquiola's 'Jellies' (pictured) feature patterns that reference her early memories. spacefurniture.com

22_ART PLAY

The interactive Reflecting Sculpture by Kristina Dam Studio encourages you to express yourself by placing the circular pieces of acrylic in various formations. kristinadam.dk

20_BACK TO THE FUTURE

An exploration into their heritage, via their grandmother's eclectic collection of furniture, inspired Lebanese designers David/Nicolas to create nostalgic yet modern pieces including the 'Loulou Rocking Chair'. davidandnicolas.com

19_RE-PURPOSED

Discarded aluminium and gravel from an abandoned industrial workshop has been salvaged and assembled to form David Taylor's series of table lamps. davidtaylor.se

The 'Pepe' marble table mirror for Danish lifestyle brand Menu is beautifully proportioned thanks to the smart juxtaposition of shapes.
