FLEXFORM

Hera

Comprising a family of armchairs and chairs that combine ergonomics and elegance, the Hera range employs a polymer-based shell and removable upholstery to provide comfortable seating for hotel lounges and restaurants. Designed by Antonio Citterio, Hera is available in two versions: with tapered, cast aluminum legs and a satin, chrome, burnished, black chrome or champagne finish; or in solid Canaletto walnut or solid ash stained in a choice of shades.

KNOLL

KN Collection

The work of Piero Lissoni, the KN Collection by Knoll comes in two different versions: the KN01, in which the proportions between seat and shell height, combined with ample measurements, provide a balanced blend of compactness and comfort; and the KN02, a more compact model offered with a headrest and manual reclining mechanism built into the armrest. The configuration can also be completed with a KN03 footrest and a down-padded seat cushion for lower back support.

RESTORATION HARDWARE

Jakob

Inspired by mid-century European design, the Jakob armchair from Restoration Hardware is crafted from solid oak, and features plank arms set atop bold inverted V-legs that taper subtly to the ground. The chair and gently curved back are angled and well padded for comfort and tightly upholstered in smooth leather, while a selection of oak finishes are also available.

DE LA ESPADA

Solo

Paying homage to the iconic Eames Shell Chair, the Solo series from De La Espada transforms the early industrial look into a sophisticated, comfortable seating option for commercial settings. Upholstered by the Portuguese furniture manufacturer and designed by Neri & Hu, the Solo Dining Chair makes use of premium hardwood, and is available in colourways of American black walnut, American white oak and European Ash, while a range of finishes and leather options are also amongst the offer.
