THE NEW CURVE

Forget sharp angles and rigid lines. The latest furniture designs take inspiration from classical architecture to riff on the circle. Time to brush up on your $\text{Pi}=\text{mc}^2$...

An off-centre circular back and crescent-shaped padding give this chair a surreal look. Contrasting textures keep things interesting.

Celeste chair, £2,859, Bohinc Studio. Knock Out side table, £509.59, Friends & Founders. For details of the Marie wallpaper, see overleaf. On the chair, from top: Samuji pipe candleholder, £100; and Shift saucer, part of a set, £250 for two teacups, saucers and teaspoons each, Apparatus, both at La Gent. On the side table, from left: Balance candleholder, £32, Ferm Living at Heal's; tapered candle, £10 for two, Ester & Erik at The Copran Shop; Moon vase, £124.88, Aleksandar Lazic at Menu; and Hjærtellig jewellery cone, £7 for three, Ikea.
