

FEBRUARY 2019

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

HANDMADE TALES

From a madly marbled Swedish manor to Moroccan rugs recycled from refuse

Painted with 'Angie', by Little Greene, the 'canopy' enveloping the sofa area was inspired by the many pinks of India, seen everywhere from saris to sunsets. It is offset by the spice colours in a vintage hand-dyed rug from Floor Story and a 'Becca' armchair from Made

ROSY OUTLOOK

With a blush-coloured 'canopy' inspired by Indian sunsets, this airy London flat marks a pink-and-perky new dawn for Rhonda Drakeford, a designer who's hitherto favoured nocturnal shades. It's also a fresh beginning for the film-industry owners, who had struggled to reconcile their opposing aesthetics à deux. Finally, all concerned have seen the light, says Kate Jacobs. Photography: Simon Upton

