

HOMES & GARDENS

ALL IN THE DETAIL
From a chic Charleston
townhouse to a historic family home in Essex

DESIGN TO LOVE
Smart kitchen chairs, curvy sofas and
pretty lampshades

PATTERN & FLAIR

The new botanicals

From arboretum-inspired motifs to hothouse plant life, foliage takes on a fresh look this season. It's time to welcome all things green and pleasant into the home

STYLING SALLY DENNING PHOTOGRAPHS POLLY WREFORD

Delicate branches of hazel set against a soft ivory background evoke a serene and elegant look. Echo the wallpaper and bring the design to life with a single branch displayed in the foreground.

Hassel 709-38 wallpaper, £85 roll,

Sandberg. Stem vase, £900, Malgorzata Bary at The New Craftsmen. Portuguese green jug, £60. Raj Tent Club. Flowers painted plate, £100, Lisa Stockham at the Flow Gallery. →

Inspired by American folk art, this dreamy wallpaper will ensure a wonderful and whimsical welcome in an entrance hall. Team with bold furnishings that can hold their own against the fantasy backdrop.

Mythical Land wallpaper panel, £378, Kit Kemp collection, Andrew Martin.

Callarish dining table, £1,825, Oka. Elliot chairs, £1,050 each, Jason Miller for De La Espada at The Conran Shop.

Panama In Oatmeal sisal flooring, from £49m, Kersaint Cobb. Tilacancha rug, £1,595, Oka. Coco wall lights, £1,120 for two, Nicholas Haslam.

Urn, £1,250 for two, Petersham Nurseries. Flowers, from £79, including delivery, The Odd Flower. →